

ClauseOut – Product Requirements Document

Product Overview

ClauseOut is an AI-powered legal guardrail that helps college students understand contracts before signing them. It analyzes legal documents, simplifies complex legal language, identifies hidden risks, and generates professional counter-offers for negotiation.

Target Users: College students, universities, career cells, and student communities.

Problem

Students often sign rental agreements, internship contracts, and hackathon terms without fully understanding legal implications, exposing them to financial loss, unfair obligations, or loss of intellectual property.

Solution

Students upload a contract, select its category, and receive an AI-powered legal review in few seconds.

The platform:

- Detects risky clauses
 - Explains legal jargon in plain English
 - Assigns risk scores
 - Suggests negotiation responses
